

You are invited to attend the November 20, 2008 Puget Sound Association for Professionals in Infection Control Lunch Program:
“Infection: The Risk is Real” Every Choice Matters

ARROW

Participant Learning Objectives

At the end of this program, participants will be able to understand the following:

- Impact of CRBSI (Catheter Related Bloodstream Infection): Lives and Cost
- National Medical and Regulatory Mandates
- Review of Current Best Practices
- How to Bring about Change?
- Share Success Stories

Agenda

11:30 am - 12:30 pm Registration and Lunch
12:30 pm - 2:00 pm Central Line Infections—A Call to Action

Presenter

Faisal Masud, MD, FCCP

Medical Director, Cardiovascular Intensive Care Unit
Methodist DeBakey Heart Center
Houston, Texas
Associate Professor of Clinical Anesthesiology
Weill Medical College of Cornell University
New York, New York

Date:

Thursday, November 20, 2008

Location:

Group Health Administration and Operations Campus
12400 East Marginal Way S
Tukwila, WA 98168

Front Desk/Security: 206-901-6010
Executive conference room inside the 2nd floor cafeteria in the main building (follow the APIC signs)

RSVP by Monday, November 17th:

Sara Dreitzler, RN, MPH, CIC
sdreitz@seattlecca.org

Ask your Teleflex Medical Representative or watch for more program information in the mail. For additional information contact Teleflex Medical.
www.teleflexmedical.com

For more information on reducing risk for patients and healthcare workers, visit FirstDoNoHarm.com

Arrow is a registered trademark of Teleflex Incorporated or its affiliates. © 2008 Teleflex Incorporated. 2008-0167 Rev 00. All rights reserved. Printed in the U.S.A.

Teleflex
MEDICAL